V. EXTERNAL REPORTS

OCSD UPDATE –

- Captain Vanessa Anderson shared that they had E bike thefts and made 2 arrests. It’s important to remember to lock bikes.
- New laws passed for E bikes regarding use of reflectors. Check for updated laws.

CHP UPDATE –

- No update

OC BOARD OF SUPERVISOR UPDATE –

- No update

38th SENATE DISTRICT UPDATE-

- No update

ASSEMBLY DIST. 71 UPDATE –

- Rep Sanchez - No Appearance but we received an update. The update was that they are working the no tax on tips legislation. They are also working on the budget and Prop 36, as well as researching the CA EDD fraud which is approximately 38 billion.

CUSD Area 2 Trustee –

- Trustee Lisa Zollinger appeared.
- CUSD continues to improve state assessment scores in language arts and math and is the highest scoring large district in the State.
- Several schools were named to the high-performance honor role.
- A resident spoke and is very concerned about book censorship. The title is called Poet X. The IRMC had previously approved it. IRMC is a board that approves what teachers propose. Lisa read the book herself. She loved it but then questioned if it was age appropriate. Several scenes were not appropriate, but she overall felt it was an appropriate book. Some people felt it was too spicy, but she liked that in the end, the character drew on what she believed on.

VI. COMMITTEE REPORTS

- a. Safety & Security – Tafa (no report)
- b. Infrastructure Committee – (no report)
- c. Community Governance/ Legislative – John spoke on the Alta Dena fires and what the implications are to non-incorporated areas like Ladera. Read the Roots & Wings article. Also, it was noted that Supervisor Foley has not provided the financials yet, which are important for us to be knowledgeable about possible incorporation. LRCC will host a candidate forum for Supervisor.
- d. Economic Development – Kati discussed LRCC's proposal to LARMAC for a banner program to celebrate Seniors. It's pricey so it would enable business partnership to offset the costs. LARMAC is considering it.
